Dear Valued Customer,

Notifier Inertia is discontinuing the Network Control Station (NCS) graphic package which was introduced more than a decade ago. While NCS has been a very successful product offerings, new customer requirements and more up-to-date alternatives force us to announce its discontinuance.

Product	Suggested Substitute
NCS	ONYXWorks

NCS has been replaced by ONYXWorks which provides a superior platform for upgrading existing systems and designing robust networks for new installations.

Please contact your Regional Sales Manager or Technical Support if you have any questions regarding this notice.

Sincerely,
